

SELAWIK WINTER WINDS

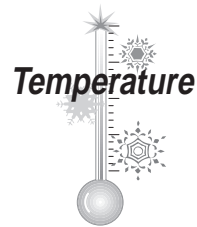

Daily Observation Sheet

Date _____ Time _____ Observers _____

Direction			Notes
Effect on visible things	<input type="checkbox"/> calm, still air; smoke rises vertically or drifts a little (calm)	<input type="checkbox"/> wind felt on face; smoke from stack leans over (light breeze)	<input type="checkbox"/> snow drifting on ground (surface wind)
	<input type="checkbox"/> snow blowing; can't see across the street (storm)	<input type="checkbox"/> can't see; fine snow powder finds its way in through your clothes; need a face mask and goggles (blizzard)

Cloud cover	<input type="checkbox"/> Clear (maybe a few clouds)	<input type="checkbox"/> Cloudy (at least 1/2)	<input type="checkbox"/> Overcast
Cloud movement	<input type="checkbox"/> None	<input type="checkbox"/> Drifting	<input type="checkbox"/> Rapid
Snow and rain	<input type="checkbox"/> None	<input type="checkbox"/> Lightly Snowing <input type="checkbox"/> Lightly Raining	<input type="checkbox"/> Snowing <input type="checkbox"/> Raining
Notes

Temperature	<input type="checkbox"/> very cold (feel it in your nose; breath sounds and looks like a jet.)	<input type="checkbox"/> cold (cold enough to mention)	<input type="checkbox"/> no comment
Compared to Yesterday	Degrees F. _____		Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> about the same	Activities of People in Town
<input type="checkbox"/> colder			Animal Activity and Signs
<input type="checkbox"/> much colder
<input type="checkbox"/> warmer
<input type="checkbox"/> much warmer			